THE SHELBY PRES (S)

Growing • Praising • Serving

Published monthly by Shelby Presbyterian Church

Sisters and Brothers in Christ,

Last month, we had the opportunity to have the sanctuary re-painted. And it looks absolutely beautiful.

Now, I realize there are many metaphors in our language based on “paint.” After all, we “paint over” to cover up or ignore what is beneath. We “put a fresh coat of paint” to make a superficial improvement. We get “painted into a corner” when there is no easy solution. We “paint with the same brush” to make an unfair comparison, or “paint with a broad brush” to generalize and leave out details.

For me, the sanctuary made me think of how often it is that only after a change, like fresh paint, do we realize it was needed.

Yes, I saw the flaking paint in certain areas. However, when members talked about the need, I listened, and just told the Property Committee. When planning started, I was glad for the members who saw this as an urgent need, but I was unmoved.

Then I walked in and saw the finished work. I realized it was needed.

This is a great example of why the church is a community, and no individual is greater than the community itself. As Presbyterians specifically, it is why we use so many committees, and the pastor is not a dictator, let alone even the “decider.”

No one among us knows everything. Each of us has our own gifts to offer. The humility of Christ should help us regard the skills and perspectives of others as greater than our own.

I am grateful for those who had the vision to see this project through. We must thank Bill Jobe, Marie Jackson, and the property committee members who came in and detached the pews so they could be moved, then put them back. Their work made it easier for the painters to get going. In turn, the painters were gracious enough to help clean the high up spots, allowing our Altar Guild and other volunteers to help clean the pews.

Last, but not least by any means, we should all thank Patrick Glenn, John Brotherton, and several others who dismantled our sound and video technology, then reassembled it in Ellis Hall for one service. Then they restored everything in the sanctuary. This was no small task. They put in long hours to do it right.

This is the beauty of community. We perceive more and we do more when we listen and respond. When power is shared, including listening to opposing opinions, we discover things we didn’t know needed improvement. That makes our community and our world more like the Kingdom of God.

- Drew

From the Desk of Carol Ann

I am delighted to share some exciting news about our Sunday School program! Our youth have taken on the incredible responsibility of teaching Sunday School classes for our children, ages 4 and up. Reflecting on my own experience from high school, I remember the mix of excitement and nervousness I felt teaching a children's class. I often wondered what the adults were thinking, entrusting me with such a significant task! However, that experience was invaluable, and I am grateful for the opportunity it gave me to grow in faith and leadership.

Watching our youth now, I am deeply impressed and proud. They have stepped up with enthusiasm and dedication, leading the children's classes with grace and confidence. This opportunity is not only benefiting the children but also providing our youth with essential skills in leadership, communication, and sharing their faith. They are truly rising to the occasion and making a positive impact.

We are blessed to be using the Godly Play resources, which have been waiting for such a moment. These materials are enriching our Sunday School lessons, helping the children learn Bible stories in an engaging and meaningful way. The youth are serving as wonderful role models, showing the children what it means to live out their faith actively and passionately.

I am profoundly thankful for this time and for the youth who are stepping out of their comfort zones to teach and lead. Their commitment and courage are inspiring. If you are in town, I encourage you to join us for Sunday School and witness our youth in action. At the same time, a combined adult class is also taking place, so there is something for everyone.

Let's continue to support and pray for our youth as they grow and serve in our church community and outside the building. Please pray for the youth and children at Passport and Kids Camp.

Music Notes

DISCOVER THE JOY OF SINGING: JOIN US IN THE CHOIR THIS SUMMER! Are you someone who loves to sing but has never ventured into the realm of choir singing? Have you ever felt the urge to raise your voice in harmony with others but hesitated to commit to regular rehearsals and performances? Well, we have an exciting invitation just for you!

This summer, we are thrilled to extend a warm welcome to all those who are not currently members of our chancel choir to join us in song. Whether you're a seasoned vocalist or someone who simply enjoys singing in the shower, this is your opportunity to experience the magic of choral music firsthand.

On July 7th and August 4th, we invite you to come and be a part of our choir for the day. Simply meet us at 9:00 am on Sunday morning in the sanctuary. No long-term commitments—just a chance to sing your heart out and experience the joy of making music together with our church community.

You might be wondering what to expect. Don't worry! Our Sunday-only choir opportunities are designed to be welcoming and inclusive for singers of all levels. We'll rehearse an easy anthem together, and then you'll have the opportunity to sing with us during the service. It's a wonderful way to connect with others, uplift your spirit, and share your love of music with the congregation.

So why not take a leap of faith and join us this summer? Whether you're curious about choir singing or simply looking for a new way to express yourself, we would be honored to have you with us. We hope this opportunity will nudge you to join us permanently!!

SPC Reports & Minutes

JOINT SESSION and DIACONATE MINUTES MAY 21, 2024

Session Vice-Clerk Tom Martin was approved as Acting Clerk in absence of Clerk Larry Wilson.

Diaconate Report: Deacon Vice-Chair Michael Pruitt reported that the Deacons have been working well together, making good group decisions, and graciously filling in for each other as needed. Several deacons spoke up and said they have enjoyed the experience of serving in this role at SPC. They expressed no concerns at this time. They did note that we are still seeking someone for Sexton and a nursery worker.

Pastor's Report -The ad hoc committee on the community refrigerator has been meeting and is considering leaving it in current location or moving it to outside the "kitchen" door on Holland St. The committee is working to address the pros and cons of each location and expedite remedies for the concerns before the return of Rainbow in August. Concerns with relocating it include: needing camera(s) to monitor the site, and the existing door needs to be updated, both for security and for ease of use as handicapped accessible. A quote of $8800 was received for an ADA compliant single wider door. Still need to make sure we comply with city fire and building codes.

SESSION GOES INTO SEPARATE SESSION TO COMPLETE AGENDA

On motion by Mystie and second by Dan, minutes of April 16, 2024, meeting were approved and ratified the Funeral/Special Services Commission approval of the funeral service for Dr. Richard Bowling on May 14.

Finance Committee -Richard reported revenues for April were on par with March. Utilities remain under budget. Legacy Fund moneys were used to pay for recent air conditioning improvements. He presented a proposal from the Finance Committee, which was approved unanimously, thus allocating $5000 from interest gained on the E.A. Moore and Ramsaur funds for use by the pastor to assist with extraordinary needs.

Member Life Committee - Carolyn B reported that our "90+" members will be honored the second Sunday in August. Dot Roark is looking forward to her 100th birthday! Session ratified the action of the committee to accept requests from Sandy and Kathy Brenneman, and Tim and Ruth Zehnder (John, Michah, Malachi) to be removed from the membership rolls. The Discipleship and Member Life committees request a change in the current policy of the Perry Scholarship to send letters only to those eligible seniors. Pastor

Property Committee - Bill reported painting will begin in the sanctuary June 3. A lift is being rented for $800 for the month. A quote of $4200 was received for repairs to the slate roof. June 29th will be the next date for our fifth Saturday workday.

Nominating Committee- The committee has completed its work on securing officer candidates for the Class of 2027. The proposed slates will be presented to the congregation for approval July 14, with congregational vote on July 21, or July 28 if any nominations are received from the floor.

Old Business - None

New Business - Personnel Committee has reviewed changes to the Child Protection Policy and approved them upon the recommendation of our insurance provider. These changes will be presented to the Session for the next meeting. Personnel has also reviewed a first draft of an anti-racism policy, which will be edited and returned to the committee for review.

Closing - Motion to adjourn by Bill Jobe, seconded by Steve Sisk, closed with prayer by Carolyn B.

SPC IS HIRING: SPC is looking for a part-time (20-25 hours per week) sexton/facilities caretaker and a nursery assistant (Sunday morning and Wednesday nights). If you know of someone who might be interested, please ask them to contact Miranda (miranda@shelbypres.org or 704-487-8503) for more details. - Personnel Committee
