THE SHELBY PRES (S)

Growing • Praising • Serving

Published monthly by Shelby Presbyterian Church

Sisters and Brothers in Christ,

Recently, as we finished reading for the night, I picked up my sleepy son Harrison, and carried him to the bathroom. I probably could have made him get up himself, but I love the way he wraps his arms around my neck for the short journey. Relishing his embrace, I also realized that soon he might be too big for me to do this.

At this point, I felt a profound sense of grief out of nowhere, followed by renewed sense of joy that he is my son, as I picked him up again to return him to his bed.

One of the refrains of the Easter Season is the command to rejoice. This is a season of joy. In the early church, persecuted Christians often refused to kneel for prayer from Easter to Pentecost. In the face of real reasons for grief, Scripture and the Church have always insisted on joy.

When we hear the word “Joy” today, we define it as a “feeling of great pleasure or happiness.” Certainly, we recognize that it is not really “joy” when we just get our way. It’s more complex, but how do we find joy, when there is still so much to grieve in our world? What then, for us, is biblical joy?

To answer this, let’s start with understanding grief, which is our response to loss in our lives. All change brings loss, and all loss will bring change. Grief is our response of sadness over change. For big things, like the loss of a loved one, our grief is big. Still, we grieve even the small things, like our children growing up.

It is healthy and good to grieve because change is hard. We struggle knowing that we will miss our loved ones and we miss the way things were. Grief leads us to joy amid loss and change, and we see this in the joy of a new hope in the Resurrection, which is a catalyst for still even more change.

In this season, we can set aside the impulse to seek joy in our perfection or that all our expectations will be satisfied, because that is not where we find biblical joy. We can lean instead into the expectation that even amid painful loss and many changes, there is joy.

What’s more, we can look to the promise of this season, that our desire to see all things made new will be satisfied. Christ is risen, the Holy Spirit is here with us, and through the love of God, we can comfort one another in our grief and be a part of making this world a better place.

From the Desk of Carol Ann

It has started – the seeds, the trays, the grow lights, the heating pads, the small watering bottle. Not much gives me greater joy than to plant flower seeds and watch them grow into plants with beautiful flowers. By the middle of summer, I will take such pride in my blue-ribbon winning dahlias and zinnias.

Just as we rejoice over the flowers and plants in our gardens, God rejoices over us. As gardeners, we lavish tender care on our gardens – planting, weeding, pruning, fertilizing, watering. Jeremiah used the image of God as the Great Gardener and told them the tenderness God has toward His people. “I will rejoice in doing good to them, and I will plant them in this land in faithfulness, with all my soul.” Jeremiah 32:41

Jeremiah wrote this verse to people in trouble. When we walk through difficult and troubled times in our lives or walk with another in trouble, it's easy to forget that God rejoices in doing good in our lives and in those of the people we love. I have seen God doing good in my life these past several weeks and will never forget. Folks rallied around the Hoard Family while Joel had his back surgery. I have watched the love poured out for Steve as he grieves. Even during the hard times of life, we must look for the goodness that comes from God. We can cling to the image of God the Great

Gardener, who lavishes tender love and faithfulness on us with his heart and soul. When we experience spiritual winter in the midst of spring, God is faithful, tenderly cultivating our souls that we may know the beauty of Springtime in our hearts once again.

Summer Sunday School Classes

Some Adult classes do not meet in the summer so we are going to offer a joint Sunday school class in Ellis Hall for the summer. Our children and youth will continue to meet for the summer. We will offer two classes for children and one for youth. We will be looking for summer teachers for the children's group. If you are interested in taking a Sunday or two let Carol Ann know.

For the adult class, we are planning on having a panel of church members to help lead the discussions. We would love your input on the Discussion Questions. The series will be "Can I ask that?" So, if you have a question and would like more information and some discussion, email it to carolanneshebyres.org by May 14th.

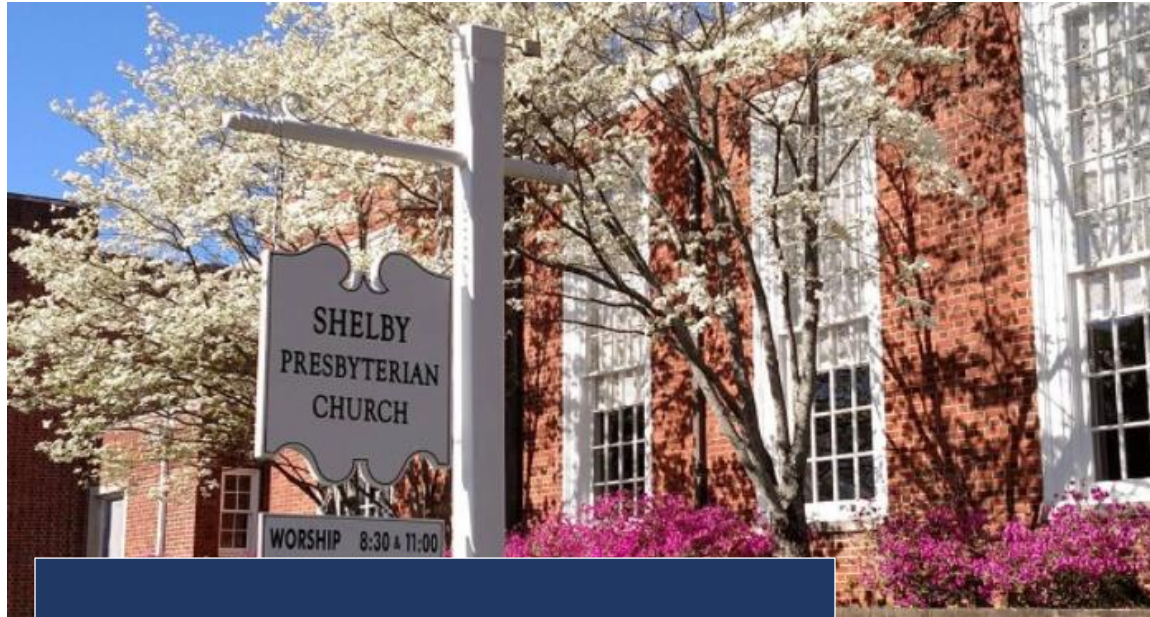

There is a void in the youth room. As we try to carry on, we miss Cheryl's smile, her words of welcome, her tears as she talks of her love for the youth, the way she made each person feel special and her friendship. We are thankful for her life and the years she spent dedicated to the youth.

THE RAINBOW CONNECTION PRESCHOOL

April was an incredibly busy time, Easter parties, egg hunts, extra outside time, exploring spring, and spring break!

This month we will have our graduation ceremony on May 23rd for our graduating 4s and 5s classes. We have watched these children grow over the years, and we are all excited for them to go off to "big school" as they say!

Summer camp starts in June, and I am sure our teachers have many fun things planned!

We are beyond blessed to be a part of the SPC community, and we are so thankful for all of the love and support.

and even when they are old they will not turn from it"*

Announcing two important projects at Young and Oak Streets in Shelby:
1 - Our Annual Women's Build will be held on two consecutive Saturdays in May. The number of volunteers on each day will be limited so participation will be first-come-first-served. The dates are Saturday, May 13 and Saturday, May 20. You may call the Habitat office to put your name on the list, indicating which day you wish to work. The number is 704-482-6289.
2 - The Habitat Church Partnership Build is scheduled for two consecutive Saturdays in June. Our Shelby Presbyterian Church representatives on the Steering Committee are Susan Grose and Bill Jobe. The dates are Saturday, June 10, and Saturday, June 17. Again the number of volunteers will be limited each day, so plan to sign up as soon as registration opens on May 14. Susan and Bill have information and will share it with anyone who is interested. Five churches have partnered together to build this house. You may also contact Richard Hart, 229-563-1253, or rchart1121@gmail.com about either of these exciting projects.

THE MEDIA COMMITTEE is looking for volunteers to run the soundboard and video equipment occasionally on Sunday mornings. Adults, as well as older, responsible youth will work in pairs each Sunday to support this important aspect of our SPC ministry. Training will be provided. If interested, please email Holly Petrilli at hollypetrilli@hotmail.com.

FAITH SHARING

Faith sharing is just what it sounds like -- sharing our life experiences from our unique perspective as a believer and member of the body of Christ. Being encouraged and inspired on our faith journey by members of our own church family has become a tradition of summer worship at SPC.

This spring, please pray specifically about this important opportunity, and if you feel the Spirit leading you to share your perspective, please contact Mystie Brotherton at 704-473-7525 or uncmystie@gmail.com to sign up for a Sunday between May 28th and September 3rd.

Turning Point Academy

We are so excited to be planning our first Teacher Appreciation Week for Turning Point Academy! This is coming up soon, during the the week of May 8-12. There will be many opportunities for volunteers and ways to help - from homemade goodies, to store-bought supplies; from hands-on serving, to monetary donations. Please keep an eye out for a link to sign up to help! And please contact Molly Brownlee (704-477-8947) with any questions or desires to get involved with our Turning Point Partnership team!

As always, any monetary donations to our Turning Point Fund are greatly appreciated - please take these to the church office and note that it is for "Turning Point Fund". Thank you!

The SPC Turning Point Team

It's warming up outside and in the SPC kitchen. We appreciated your Souper Bowl of Caring contributions. We are seeing an increase in attendance for hot lunches each Monday at 11:45 and food distribution at 11:00. Our doors open at 9:30 with coffee and assorted pastries available to all. We have enjoyed getting to know many of our guests, and it is special to see them getting to know each other. The social aspect of this ministry is very important. We all need food for our bodies, and we also need nourishment for our spirits. Our dedicated crew of volunteers is blessed not only by serving others; we are blessed by serving with others! We have a wonderful time together. Food pickup and distribution is a vital part of this ministry. If you have a truck and /or strong back that you are willing to share please let Miranda know, and you will be contacted.
